Skill enhancement camp held for undergraduates

Students and resource persons seen discussing during the event.

■ District Correspondent
AKOLA, Jan 18

SMT LRT Commerce College and Western India Council of Institute of Chartered Accountants of India jointly organised a Skill Enhancement Programme for undergraduate students. The programme was conducted under the aegis of SGBAU.

Principal Dr S G Chapke had earlier signed an MoU with ICAI, Akola branch to provide this skill enhancement programme. Under this programme, a total guidance of 36 hours was provided to students in offline mode during December 27, 2021 to January 9, 2022.

CA Sayali Chandalia guided on Business Communication, CA Poonam Rathi guided on Social and Business Etiquettes; CA Jyoti Malkani on Personality Development; CA Nishit Shah on E-Filing Under Income Tax, CA Deepti Modi on GST, CA Monika Kothari on Tally Accounting.

Similarly, CA Ashish Agarwal, CA Saket Rathi and coordinator of this course, Prof Dr Nilesh Chotia also guided the students to participate in the camp.

Senior Professor of WIRC Srabani Kapoor, as well as ICAI, Akola President CA Keur Dedhia provided invaluable guidance.
